Can You Find Missing Husband
in Lima?

Missing Husband:

The wandering ones have escaped so far but the daring one who will brave the crowd on N. Main-st Tuesday afternoon may not be as smooth as he thinks he is and his capture may cost The News 25 good iron men.

One of the missing husbands, will parade down N. Main-st at precisely 4:45 Tuesday evening past the Deisel-Wemmer plant. If anyone taps him on the shoulder and says, "You are one of the missing husbands" that person will receive a check for $25 from The Lima News.

The other missing husband will walk about the streets tonight, out Springer to McDowell and down Market to the Square. His capture also is worth $25 to the person detecting him.

If neither of them is caught they will go about the streets tomorrow. One of them, the daring one, if he is successful in escaping today, will walk up Main-st from the Leader store to the Lohr store and then cross Main-st to the Normal and down to the United Cigar store. He will start at 4 p. m. and will do considerable window shopping on the way. Of course, if he is detected today, this trip will be cancelled.

The other will stroll about High-st between Main and the postoffice Wednesday evening and will venture out on Main-st. He will begin his wanderings at 7 p. m.

In addition to the $25 The Lima News will pay for the detection of the two missing husbands, four tickets will be given to each of the persons catching them. These tickets will be for the super-movie, "Missing Husbands" at the Sigma theatre, it begins Wednesday.

OHIO AGENTS NAB MARION FARMER

Find Still in Operation, Prohibition Sleuths Say

State prohibition enforcement agents, who temporarily ceased activities in Allen-co two weeks ago, suddenly swooped down on a Marion-farmer Tuesday noon and made one arrest.

Apothe Gary, 35, Belgian farmer, living just off Harding Highway near Wright's crossing, was taken and charged with manufacturing liquor.

Prohibition officers assert they found a still running full blast in an out building, two gallons of liquor above the average in strength in the cellar of the residence and 150 gallons of mash.

The whisky and still were brought to Lima as evidence. Gary was lodged in jail to await arraignment. A blanket search warrant authorizing the sleuths to raid the farm was issued by Justice E. M. Botkin early in the day.

Officers are said to have first applied for the warrant in probate court, but changed their minds and obtained it from Justice Botkin. Judge Hamilton has in the past several times stated that handling liquor cases interfered with routine procedure of his court.

Clay will be arraigned sometime Tuesday afternoon. The band of dry sleuths who made the arrest are identical with the crowd which have been working in the county for a month.

STEINLE STRICKEN

Stroke of Paralysis Forces Him to Hospital

Henry Steinle, part owner of the White Cigar store, was taken to St. Rita's hospital Monday night following a severe stroke of paralysis, affecting the left side of his body.

After regaining consciousness Tuesday morning, hospital attendants asserted that his condition was slightly improved. For several hours after the attack, Steinle was unable to speak.

The stroke, which occurred two years and one day after a previous attack, came suddenly, while Steinle was at work. He reported at noon and according to friends, seemed cheerful and well. Late in the afternoon, he complained of a peculiar feeling and was stricken a little while later.

NEWS SETS RECORD—BOYS TO EAT

9,000 Mark in Home-Delivered Circulation in City Is Passed—Total Distribution in Lima Monday Night 10,252

A $8 a reward for their work in bringing the total net paid, home-delivered circulation of The Lima News above the 9,000 mark, city carriers numbering 73 will be given a supper by the News Thursday evening at Jack & Yoshi's restaurant, W. Market-st.

With a total city circulation Monday night of 10,252, the paid, home-delivered list reached 9,007. The gain in circulation in the city alone since September 1, 1922 has been 439.

With the thousands of copies of this newspaper which go out to every community in the district and on rural routes, The News covers the Lima territory like a blanket. It believes it has a higher percentage of home deliveries in the city than any newspaper in Ohio if not in the middle west.

Newsboys who will attend the supper Thursday night will meet at The News building at 6:30 and will march to the restaurant in a body. Their "food" will be served at 7 o'clock.

Ray F. Corcoran, circulation manager, and his assistants will accompany the boys. In addition to the supper, some special stunts are promised.

STATE SCORES IN ROSIER CASE

Defense Tactics in Murder Trial
Halted by Court

PHILADELPHIA — (Associated Press) — The commonwealth gained an advantage today in the trial of Mrs. Catherine Rosier, for the killing of Mildred Geraldine Reckitt, her husband's stenographer, when Judge Barratt, sustaining objections, cut short renewed efforts of the defense to elicit from the first witness, Arthur Rosier, statements indicating that he had "poisoned" the mind of Mrs. Rosier against her husband. Mrs. Rosier is also charged with the killing of her husband, Oscar Rosier.

Mrs. Rosier sat thru the cross-examination of her brother-in-law coldly. Not even the sight of the automatic pistol with which the crime had been committed drew emotion from her.

Henry Weston, a civil engineer, the first person to see the victim after they had been shot in Rosier's office, testified that he found them lying on the floor moaning. Both were fully clad. Rosier was stretched in a corner. The stenographer lay beside her desk. After hastening to the street to fetch a policeman he returned and found the girl stretched on the couch.

A traffic officer who came in response to Weston's summons described how he had found the victims. Mrs. Rosier, he said, admitted firing the shots.

"I did it. I must have been crazy," she cried, according to the policeman's testimony.

MURDER CHARGED

NEW YORK — An indictment charging first degree murder was returned by the grand jury today against Mrs. Paulette Sluades, French woman who shot and killed Oscar Martelliere, broker, of whom she was enamored in his office on the afternoon of October 6.

Four hundred American sailors and 400 British sailors were on board at the city hall. Afterward there was a cinema show.

SELECTING JURY

Panel Being Chosen to Try Mrs.
Clara Phillips

LOS ANGELES — (United Press) — A bitter fight over the selection of the jury to try Mrs. Clara Phillips, accused of the "hammer murder" of Mrs. Alberta Meadows, threatened to retard the taking of testimony today.

Refusal of the court to dismiss the panel because the defense claimed its members had served as jurors for too long a time precipitated the clash over the jury. Defense counsel indicated that every effort would be made to obtain the "pick of the panel."

Courtroom crowds dwindled as the prospects of hearing the evidence grew less. It was generally believed that several days may elapse before the first witness is called.

Eleven jurors were in the box today, passed for cause.

Defense Counsel Harrington today had nine preemptory challenges, which he will undoubtedly use in an attempt to have members of the panel dismissed for cause.

HEARING BOLTED

Capt. Hastings Objects to Procedure in Case

COLUMBUS, O. — (United Press) — Captain R. U. Hastings, deposed superintendent of the boys industrial school at Lancaster, "bolted" the hearing on his appeal for reinstatement here this afternoon. The defense had rested its case when attorneys for the state called C. O. Dillinger, disciplinarian, at the Boys Industrial School, back to the witness stand for rebuttal. Hastings' counsel objected, but the objection was overruled.

Whereupon the former superintendent and his attorney quit the hearing.

The state announced it would continue with its witness in rebuttal. The state intends to introduce letters written by Hastings to Dillinger which have "an important bearing" on matters of deportment at the Boys Industrial School.

CLAIMS WOMAN HAS NO SOUL

would be polygamists," said Captain Crawford, who gained fame recently by submitting to arrest rather than quit preaching to save men's souls in the bright light district of Broadway. "But the men are forced—most of them—by law or necessity, to be monogamists."

"Women are natural monogamists. It is not necessary expressly to forbid them to covet their neighbor's husbands, because they are not naturally inclined to such covetousness."

Captain Crawford said that Ambassador Harvey had drawn his theory that women had no souls entirely from the Old Testament. When the books of the Old Testament were written, she said, practically all men were polygamists and that accounts for the scant mention made of women.

Miss Lucille Fugh, prominent woman lawyer, sided with the ambassador insofar as agreeing that man and woman were created simultaneously and that woman was not made out of man's rib as an after thought.

"Ambassador Harvey was absolutely right when he stated in London last night that men and women were created at the same time," Miss Fugh. "Women's presence is contradictory to the old theory that she was made out of a rib."

With regard to the commandment to men not to covet their neighbor's wives, Miss Fugh said:

"I don't think any thoughtful woman would call coveting her neighbor's husband moral, despite the inferred permission in the Bible."

COLLEGIAN DAYS, AGENT NIGHTS

CLEVELAND.—(Special).—Conviction that he was making a serious mistake in dropping his engineering course at Case School of Applied Science came to Thomas R. Connors just before the fall term opened.

All summer Connors had worked at an apprentice wage in a machine shop; he had no money saved to finance him through the college year. He called on O. L. Allison, alumni manager of the college, just as a railroad called in looking for a graduate to care for one of the Cleveland stations.

A day's study and a night's work is a tough little combination, but Connors tackled it. He took the job.

Between 7 p. m. and 4 a. m., Connors sells tickets, call trains and handles the other station jobs for the railroad. Then he puts in a day studying. Between the two jobs, he manages to sandwich in a little sleep every time he completes each round of duty.

WILSON WON WAR

Not by Force, But Propaganda,
Says Dr. Jacobs

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. — (Associated Press) — Dr. Thorne Jacobs of Oglethorpe University, Atlanta, caused a ripple in the annual convention of the Southeastern district Associated Advertising Clubs of the World last night by an address in which he urged magnanimity toward Germany and declared Woodrow Wilson's speeches caused the Teutons to stop fighting.

Dr. Jacobs recently returned from Germany. He stated that the consensus of opinion there is that America won the war—not thru force of arms, nor thru powerful financial resources, but thru propaganda that made known to the Kaiser's soldiers Woodrow Wilson's plan for making the world safe for democracy. He said:

"Wilson's speeches were dropped into the German trenches. They were eagerly read by the fighting men. 'That is what we have been fighting for' many of them said. And many of them surrendered to the allies because of Wilson's fourteen points and the hope of establishing a German republic on the American plan."

BRITISH PREMIER'S FALL

Probably the most important world event since the United States returned to democracy is the verdict against President Wilson's policies in the election two years ago, marked the past week, in David Lloyd George's triumph as premier of England.

The English call this "the fall of a government." They use the word "government" as Americans use the word "administration." So all they mean is that the Lloyd George administration has gone out and the Bonar Law administration has come in.

England being a monarchy, theoretically the king is the government's head. Really he has little power. The English official who corresponds most nearly to president of the United States is the premier or cabinet chief.

As a theory the king appoints the premier. In fact he has little choice. He must name the leader of the strongest political party. It is assumed, correctly, that the strongest party is the one which elects the most members of parliament.

An election having been held and the winning leader having been appointed premier, that administration is supposed to remain in power for seven years, when another election is held. However, public opinion often changes in the meantime. The members of parliament represent the public, so their votes on pending questions change too. Thus, if the premier has not changed his ideas, he may find, to his regret, in years up, that sentiment different from his own is stronger than he is in parliament.

Then he resigns.

The king appoints, in his place, the leader of the party with a majority of parliamentary votes.

But when a ballot actually is taken, the new premier sometimes finds that he has not as many supporters as he thought.

In such a case it is uncertain whether he is stronger, and an election is held to find out, even though the regular time for one has not come.

Well, David Lloyd George, who was premier, has lost his majority in parliament, and the king has appointed Andrew Bonar Law in his place.

PARTIES JOINED HANDS

When the war broke out a liberal administration was in power in England.

But in a time of such emergency it was thought lines ought not to be so strict. So Herbert H. Asquith, premier, reorganized the cabinet, giving about half the portfolios to Conservatives, and one or two to members of the Labor party.

This was the beginning of what is known as "the coalition government."

Presently it began to be complained that Asquith was not pushing the war vigorously enough. Finally he had to resign.

As the two big parties, for the time being, were merged, it was neither possible nor desired to make a political choice of a successor, as would have been done in ordinary times. Instead Lloyd George, who was minister of war and had been a member of Asquith's original Liberal cabinet, simply was promoted to the premiership.

Elections were waived. Lloyd George fought out the war and remained head of the "coalition government" until last week.

Opposition to him at length began to develop, however. The Conservatives objected to him as a Liberal. Many Liberals said he had become a Conservative. Times were bad. Rightly or wrongly, he was blamed. Especially of late he was accused of bringing England close to war with the Turks. As a climax, a large bloc of Conservatives withdrew their support from the "coalition."

Lloyd George's parliamentary majority was gone. He had to resign.

EARLY ELECTION CERTAIN

With the breakup of the "coalitions," England returned to party government.

Lloyd George had classed as a Liberal. Therefore the king, on his advice, made Andrew Bonar Law premier, as leader of the Conservative group.

But party alignments are so badly broken that it is doubtful if Bonar Law will have a majority either. Certainly he cannot hold one together long.

So it is safe to predict an election soon.

Who will win nobody can say. Lloyd George is sure to try to regain power, but how? He is not a Conservative. Asquith still leads the Liberals. Lloyd George is not actually in sympathy with any smaller group. Many people believe he will undertake to form a new party of his own.

INTERESTS AMERICANS DEEPLY

How deeply the United States is interested in the character of England's governmental leadership can be seen when it is considered that these two countries, as the best, richest and most influential of all, rests the burden of rearing order from the chaos into which the war threw the world.

Left to this task alone America's difficulties would be enormous. With England's aid, much is to be hoped for.

Despite some differences of opinion, the Washington administration and the administration of Premier Lloyd George were working together with a fair degree of harmony. Upon the great question of international naval disarmament they were

FUND TRANSFER IS AUTHORIZED

Commission Provides Money to Operate General Departments

Operation of the public works, health, general and hospital departments of the city for a few more weeks will be possible thru the transfer of $4,500 from the interest fund.

City commissioners Monday night authorized the transfer which will make available money received from the banks as interest on money deposited there for the operation of the city.

Improvements connected with the construction of the McCallister bridge will be taken care of by a transfer of funds from the Ottawa river bridge fund.

Money for the payment of $36,000 water main lines, not provided for in the original bond issue, will be taken from the surplus in the water department.

ELIMINATES FUNDS

This will make a bond issue for the election of 39 extra fire hydrants and the laying of nearly three miles of water mains unnecessary, C. A. Bingham, city manager, told the commission.

A resolution setting the grade for the sidewalk between the Business College-bldg and the Argonne drug store on N. Elizabeth-st. was passed by the city commission.

In taking this action the city will be legally able to either compel the owners of the property to build a new sidewalk or to construct it at their expense.

After some discussion a proposition to permit new gasoline filling stations between 39 and 40 feet from the curb instead of 50 feet as at present was continued until the next meeting of the commission.

Ordinances providing for the issuance of bonds to pay for the paving of Kenilworth-av and for the construction of small sewers on Park-av and Cole-st were passed.

SHE HAD ATTACKS OF AWFUL PAIN

Lima Lady Says Plant Juice Has Relieved Her Suffering With Stomach

HAD SUFFERED 20 YEARS

"Here is a testimonial that shows the power of my Plant Juice in its action upon the stomach, better than anything I could say," said The Plant Juice Man at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square. "It was given to me by a well known lady of your city, Mrs. William Taylor, who lives at 952 South Atlantic street, Lima, and who is known by hundreds of you Lima people. Mrs. Taylor, who has been Plant Juice relieved her stomach suffering she had suffered for 20 years.

This testimonial, referred to by The Plant Juice Man, was given by Mrs. Taylor as follows:

"For more than 20 years," said Mrs. Taylor, "I had suffered from attacks of terrible pain due to gas in my stomach and had suffered from pains under my arms and shoulders. It seemed that everything I ate would cause a terrible spell of belching which would sometimes last for two or three hours and would almost exhaust me. I took many different kinds of medicines but none of them gave me relief.

"One day not long ago I had one of the worst attacks that I had ever had. I lasted for four hours. I asked a neighbor lady to go get the Plant Juice for me because I was so bad off I couldn't get out myself. She got me the Plant Juice and the very first dose seemed to go right to the seat of my trouble and then it was all over and I had relief."

"I have now taken all of my first bottle of Plant Juice and the results are wonderful for I can eat what I want and do not suffer distress afterward—no more gas, belching or pain. I am simply a different woman and feel so fine that I want to tell everybody about Plant Juice, and am glad it has come to our city."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne-sts and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.—Adv.

HUGE JOB TO TAKE THREE YEARS

$100,000,000 Nitrate Plant at Muscle Shoals Under Way

U. S. ARMY MAN IN CHARGE

Appropriations Needed to Speed
Work, he Declares

(BY HARRY HUNT)
WASHINGTON. — (Special —
Muscle Shoals, the $100,000, 000 power and nitrate plant being developed by the government on the Tennessee river at Sheffield, Ala., will be completed within three years.

Brig. Gen. Taylor, assistant chief of the U. S. engineers in charge of the work—greatest of its kind ever undertaken—says so.

"Give us 30 months," he adds—
"three years at the outside—with appropriations to keep going at full speed ahead, and we'll have the job completed by the fall of 1925 at the latest."

"Under favorable rainfall conditions, we may make it by the spring of that year."

Oct. 1, the date on which the new appropriation of $7,500,000 for continuing work on the dam became available, found everything in readiness for active construction work during the coming winter.

NIGHT ON THE JOB

As soon as the new appropriation was assured, army engineers, headed by Colonel W. J. Barden, recruited labor forces and resumed such construction as could be attempted.
This was done by utilizing money that had been held in a maintenance fund for caring for the unfinished structure and the available equipment on the works.

"Since July 15, we have put in the afternoons across the unfinished part of the north channel," General Taylor says. "Have excavated for the dam foundations there down to bed rock and are ready to start pouring concrete. With our present organization we expect to put in about 200 cubic yards a day. Unless unusually high waters interfere, we expect to bring this north section up to its first stage before spring."

"Had we been required to wait until the new appropriation was available before undertaking this excavating and the building of the cofferdam, it is doubtful if next spring would have found us much farther along than we are now. By utilizing the money being held for maintenance in this work, we have got a running start that will enable us to make good progress, through the winter."

1500 AT WORK

Fifteen hundred men are busy working on the Wilson Dam. When completed this will be the largest piece of concrete in the world, containing one and a quarter million cubic yards. It will be nearly a mile long, 90 feet high and 100 feet thick at its base. There will be a wagon and automobile road across its top.

In addition to excavation and cofferdam work on the north section of the dam, which lies between an island in mid-stream and the north shore, work has been pushed in getting in foundations for the powerhouse section near the south shore.

"The power house is the controlling factor," explains Taylor. "Its construction will be carried along so operation by the time the last section of the big dam is in place."

"But we will have to have more money. The $7,500,000 is just for this fiscal year."

HUNDREDS OF MEN ARE FIGHTING PEAT BOG FIRE

NORWALK, Ohio—Hundreds of men are fighting a peat bog fire which started in marshes around Willard several weeks ago and which is spreading rapidly over an area two miles square.

The flames have leaped over several water courses and are now approaching the Crawford-co line.
The muck land catches fire and burns underground and farmers predict these underground fires will burn un-

"BE YOURSELF," IS POET'S ADVICE

Charles Garland Explains His Seemingly Strange Acts

INDIVIDUALITY IS URGED

Every Person Must Work Out
Own Salvation

By JOSEPHINE VAN DE GRIET
MIDDLEBORO, Mass.—(Special)

What is Charles Garland driving at?

What is his philosophy of life—of marriage, of right and wrong, of labor, of wealth?

Garland has answered these questions for the first time. The man who gave away his fortune to be used in public service, and now lives on his run-down farm near here, gave me this authorized statement:

I am 23 years old. When I was 20 I entered Harvard. I went to college as a matter of course with no definite idea as to what my future was to be.

But some time during the year I started reading Tolstoy and Plato and was surprised to find out how much more Plato knew than the people who were trying to teach me.

At the end of the first year I left college determined to evolve my own standards and to live by them. All that has happened since has been the result of that determination.

WORKING OUT PROBLEMS

I do not pretend that those standards are perfect. I have merely attempted to work out my own problem to my own satisfaction.

I have been asked if it is my purpose to establish a colony of people whose ideals are similar to my own. No idea has occurred practically to me thus far.

My 30 acres of farm here are run down. I am trying to bring them to a supporting basis. In the meantime I am using as much of my income as I need. The major portion of it I am devoting to the American Fund for Public Service, because I believe that all wealth should be used for social purposes.

I have no wish to fasten my ideas upon anyone else. Each individual should work out his own salvation according to the best of his ability.

The individual should be less subservient to outside authority. The whole idea of right and wrong is based on the mistaken assumption that some one person knows what right is.

SHOULD REVERE CHILDREN

Education is not a matter of teaching children alone. Grow-ups can learn as much from children as children can from grown-ups. We should have more reverence for children. I do not feel that I own my children.

Marriage is all right for those who believe in it. The only thing that makes marriage sacred is love. Love is the only bond to marriage. If love has ceased marriage becomes what it was in the beginning—merely an outward symbol.

If a man and a woman differ in certain things then they should each determine what is best for both. Whatever reports there have been to the contrary, Mrs. Garland and I are still friends. We are trying to do what is best for both of us.

I started farming because I felt the need of doing productive work. Everybody should do constructive work of some kind. If each of us had in mind the doing of useful work rather than the making of money, there would be a much better distribution of labor.

HUMAN LIFE WILL BE LENGTHENED

Scientist Sees 30 Years Added to Individuals' Existence

GIVES RECIPE FOR LONGEVITY

Dr. E. H. Emerson, Columbia University Urges Health

By STEPHEN M. WALTER
CLEVELAND, Ohio—(Special)

The child born this year is going to live 30 more years of life than the young men and women born in 1900.

Such is the gain made for the average child by science, in the long battle of Man against Death, according to Dr. Emerson Haven Emerson, professor of public health administration at Columbia University.

That the "three-score years and ten" of scriptural life ideal will be extended, under scientific methods, to four-score or more, with life really only well begun at 50, is the prediction of Dr. Emerson. Furthermore, he expects this additional span of life to come within the lives of persons now living.

AVERAGE NOW 55

"The average length of mankind's stay on earth, right now, is but 55 years, says Dr. Emerson. "But by the time the baby born in 1923 has reached the age of 50, there remains little doubt but what the normal span of life will have been widened to more than 75 years."

"In the last 20 years the average human life has been lengthened about eight years. In the last half century preceding, only seven years were added to man's lease of life."

How will Man stave off longer his eventual visitor?

It's simple, according to Dr. Emerson. He has put the recipe for longevity into a set of simple rules that they must be continually kept in mind, he says, if they are to be of value.

"Anybody can live in excess of his allotted three-score years and ten if he has the will to stay healthy," he concluded. "Any community or nation can become a society of long lives if it wills to become so."

There is how it is done, Dr. Emerson says:

a charming wife, who paid the price,
are setting about the serious business of proving that marriage may not necessarily interfere with a career.

The expensive husband is Paul mous director of the Kryn band and millionaire art collector.

Marion Kryn, another daughter, will have to pay the same price if she says that wouldn't stop her if she has to face the same problem.

"Love," she says, "comes before money."

JUST PLAIN PURP IS "TANKY"

AN FRANCISCO, Cal. (Special)

This story is just to give
"Tanky," a pedigreed Peking ese purp a chance to deny a few things that have been printed about him.

"Tanky" has just arrived in America accompanied by Monsieur
Tallyrand-Perrigord first Duke of Tallyrand, and Duchesse de Tal-lyrand, formerly Anna Gould. Sure, he is of royal dog blood, but—
He eats plain meat.

He doesn't sleep on a fancy pillow, nor in a royal bed.
He is bathed only once a week (though he jumps in a puddle of mud whenever he gets a chance).

He mixes with common dogs
when he slips out for stroll.
He's traveled a lot—but would rather stay at home if the duke and duchess would let him.

And "Tanky" sincerely hopes that this will correct all rumors that he's a milk drinker and a lounge lizard, and put him in right with the democratic American dog
he expects to meet over here.

BRITAIN PLANS TO PAY U. S.

Policy of New Government is Announced

WILL PROMOTE FRIENDSHIP

Immediate Steps to Carry Out Program to be Taken

LONDON — (United Press)—

Lord Curzon who will be foreign minister in the new cabinet, have decided definitely to promote the new government's policy toward America under the Conservative government. It has two salient points:

1.—Payment of England's debt to the United States.
2.—Promotion of close, dignified friendship between the two great English-speaking nations.

This policy was formulated in a series of conferences between the prime minister and Curzon. There will be no more pronouncements such as Lord Balfour's note to France in which he said Britain could be unable to consider revision of Europe's debt to her until there had been an adjustment of Britain's debt to America.

IMMEDIATE ACTION

Steps are being taken to carry out the new British policy immediately. The meeting of the debt funding commission in Washington will not be delayed more than a fortnight. The change in ministries and cabinet confusion. It is unlikely that Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the exchequer in the Lloyd George cabinet, will represent Britain at this conference, as had originally been planned.

There is a strong possibility that Reginald McKenna—former member of the Asquith cabinet, who, while maintaining he is still a Liberal, is speaking today at an important conservative meeting—will go to Washington with some British treasury officials while Ambassador Geddes acts as plenipotentiary.

Co-incidentally Geddes will remain as ambassador to the United States.

PRINCIPAL RELATIONS

Bonar Law and Curzon regard Geddes as a Canadian and also as a financier and think he is the man for the place. The principal Anglo-American relations, are financial it is pointed out and his personality makes Geddes an ideal ambassador to promote what the new government hopes will be the most cordial friendship between two nations in world history.

Under the new policy Britain will not attempt to persuade the United States to enter a European activity but an intimation thru Geddes will be most welcome any time President Harding decides to step into foreign affairs temporary or permanently.

In connection with the Balfour note Bonar Law agreed there would be no further attempt to dictate foreign policy from Downing-street. It was most authoritatively learned that the Balfour note "won't exactly be torn up but it will be filed quietly in some remote place and the place where it will be filed will be forgotten."

HARRISON COMING

Senator Will Speak on Same Program With Pomerene

Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, will speak in Lima Monday night on the same program with Senator Atlee Pomerene, it was definitely announced Tuesday by L. E. Ludwig, chairman of the speaker's committee for the Allen-co, Democratic organization.

Confirmation of a previous announcement that Harrison would be here, came Tuesday from Ludwig after he had received a message from Democratic state headquarters at Columbus assuring him that Harrison would be here.

Harrison will speak after Pomerene, candidate for election.

The appearance of both on the same program, it is predicted, will attract wide attention from Allen and nearby counties.

Pomerene's appearance here will be the first of public nature since the campaign has begun.

ANKLES MADE U.S. GIRLS FAMOUS

Lucille Ager Fights for Return of Short Skirts

AMERICA'S INDIVIDUAL STYLE

Actress Seeks Help in Ignoring Long Gowns

(BY MARIAN HALE)

These long, wrappy, impractical gowns—what are we going to do with them?

Over the country, particularly in the short-skirted areas, the girls are short-skirted and so lost in the long gown, have been asking each other, "What are we going to do with them?"

The only answer seemed to be—discard them and look pleasant.

It remained for Lucille Ager to develop a plan of resistance.

The fault lies with the actresses, she decided. "They set the styles for the country. The designers have said to them the idea of the long skirt and they are now engaged in selling it to the public."

It is a very well for them to stand around in their long skirts—on the stage but how about the girls who work all day? Must the stenographer give up her trim little short skirt and array herself like a 1922 copy of a Greek goddess while she pounds out her letters?

SHE COMES TO RESCUE
Now Miss Ager herself is tall and slender. She has often posed for Charles Dana Gibson's statuesque beauties. She can wear the most extreme frock Paris would send over. She also is an actress.

So the four brave motives could be said to have actuated her opposition to short skirts, or her place in the blame on members of her profession. And lacking the position, her attitude was significant enough to carry conviction.

When she wrote notes to her friends and asked them to sign a petition in the protection of the short skirt, she found many of them willing to help. And this time the fact formed a club whose policy is to stick together and wear the long skirt, regardless of the fashion.

PRINCIPLE INVOLVED
"You see, there's really a principle involved," she explains. "America ought to be strong enough to make her own styles, and to develop those particularly suited to our mode of living."

"Then, too, American women are proud of their world for their individual styles and feet. Our well-shod feet are the first thing the foreigner comments on."

"We have made ourselves a race of slender ankles women by the short skirt. Women who have been particular about themselves have waited or exercised until they could wear their ankles."

"To go back to the long skirt might mean that women would go back to different footwear and thick ankles."

Meanwhile, Miss Ager's mail increases daily, and she's thinking that her next move will be to hire a secretary. And if her plans carry, the short-skirted girl will reappear on Broadway.

GIRL JOINS QUEST FOR LOST TRIBE

Dorothy Salisbury to Accompany Father on Trip

WILL ENTER REMOTE PLACES

First White Girl to Penetrate Unknown Wilds

(BY GENE COHN)

SAN FRANCISCO. (Special).—One of the remote fastnesses of the Malay archipelago hunters and adventurers have for years brought tales of a "missing link" tribe of "monkey-tailed natives."

Skeptical science is now going to definitely prove or explode these tales of tall.

And a pretty American girl is going to help; the first white girl to enter these remote places.

She is Dorothy Salisbury, who accompanies her father, Captain Edward A. Salisbury, scientist and explorer, who has just sailed from here with a scientific party including Prof. Edward B. Seward, Columbia University; Lieutenant Duke Zeller, who was a member of the last Stevenson expedition; and Lieut. Col. M. C. Cooper of the army aviation service.

"It was while I was exploring in the Solomon and New Hebrides islands that I first heard from native game hunters of a tribe on the Malay archipelago, every member of which had a tail," explained Captain Salisbury.

"Down there I also ran across some postcards which showed some photographs of such a man, but which many declared to be a fake. Science has never definitely established their existence."

"According to the descriptions we were given, these natives are half-stopping forwards, short, thick, bristly hair, standing just above the eyes. Their ears are unusually sharp and pointed and their faces are said to closely resemble the Central African ape."

The scientists will meet at Singapore where they will sail on the Salisbury yacht, being outfitted there for the trip.

HELD FOR QUIZ IN HALL CASE

Young Man is Arrested at Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA — (United Press) — A man giving the name of Paul Wilson, Jr., 25, of Highland Park, suburb of New Brunswick, N. J., who is being held for questioning in connection with the Hall Mills murder investigation, is suffering breakdown and hallucinations, police said today.

Wilson is booked as "sick" at city hall and is under a doctor's care. He was so nervous that he could hardly talk, his muscles twitching constantly.

He was detained while loitering around the Broad-st. station, and held on suspicion that he might know something about the murder.

Young Wilson said that the police had been "hounding" him; that it was "a frame-up" and that it was the fault of the "gang" that hangs around a garage in New York, that he was in trouble.

Police believe the boy knows nothing of the murder and are merely holding him until word comes from the New Brunswick authorities or the boy's parents, who were notified at once.

Buy Advertised Goods

Save Money

Protect Yourself

By H. A. Groth

Advertising benefits the consumer ---most of all. Advertised goods are trade marked to protect the consumer for quality and quantity.

Think of the infinite variety of prepared foods, from which the greater part of a wholesome meal may be prepared with almost no work for the housewife.

Think of the household conveniences and business conveniences ---the time savers in your office or home ---the accessories which make your automobile a greater pleasure.

All of these things are rather intricate. It would cost a small fortune to prepare a few of them for private use.

How do you suppose the man who first thought of these things was able to make them for you at a price you could afford to pay?

It was through advertising---of course. Advertising organizes cooperative buying units. The man with a new idea knows that he can tell thousands or millions of people about his idea through advertising. He knows that the united buying power of all these people will enable him to produce his idea in practical form at a cost which is only a fraction of what the first article would cost.

One of the best examples of how this is done is Eskimo Pie. Within six months after the inventor first had his idea, everybody in the United States knew about these delicious new chocolate covered ice cream bars.

This was a spectacular demonstration of how advertising can bring a new idea to the whole American public. But in every advertising success, the same principle holds true.

But advertising does more than introduce new ideas to you. It safeguards you in the purchase of any advertised product. You can depend upon it--nothing can succeed through advertising unless the article itself has merit. Advertising a bad product will make just as many enemies for that product as advertising a good product will make friends for the good product.

And so, if an article has been widely advertised for a long time, you can be sure that it is good or the public would never have supported it. You know that the advertised and trade-marked product must have a definite quality ---and be fully worth the price. You can be sure that you get more real value in an advertised product for every penny you spend, than you will in an unadvertised product, because advertising is the cheapest selling method there is.

You know the advantages of cooperative buying. You have heard a lot about the idea in the last two or three years. You belong to a cooperative buying society every time you buy an advertised product. Read advertising. Buy advertised products. It is the surest way to be certain of satisfaction and money's worth.

NEW PEACE MOVE CONSIDERED

Pan-American Association of Nations Believed Likely

PARLEY TO OPEN DEC. 4

First Step May be Taken at Washington Meeting

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — While possibilities of a settlement between all countries in the American continents may be considered in the Central American conference called to meet in Washington, December 4, for the discussion of other things of a peace nature, the opinion was expressed today that the conference might prove a step toward the formation of a Pan-American association of nations.

It was pointed out that the agenda of the conference as outlined in the invitation to the Central American powers, is of such a nature as to permit discussion of subjects of mutual interest to all the nations participating. In view of the fact that the recent agreement of Chile for a South American agreement on limitation of armaments and the movement in progress for a Pan-American league, a peace measure would be a logical step toward the formation of a Pan-American association of nations.

The Central American Conference will deal with land armaments, but not with the five countries in the world which have no land frontiers. The result of the conference might well be a step toward a general agreement for a later conference among all Latin-American nations. Such a step would be a logical step toward the formation of a Pan-American association of nations.

HUTCHINS MUST ANSWER AUTO THEFT CHARGE OR FIND NEGRO, JUDGE RULES

Unless F. W. Hutchins, 22, 610 W. Wayne-st., proprietor of the West Side garage, is able to produce "Sampson", who is said to have sold him an automobile for $20, in criminal court Tuesday afternoon, he will be arraigned on a charge of stealing an automobile.

Hutchins asserted that the negro who sold him the car had left town and that he had made arrangements to return the automobile to J. J. Hassell, 1215 W. Spring-st., rightful owner of the automobile, but Judge Jackson ruled that Hutchins must face the charge.

TWO ARE KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

WOOSTER, Ohio — (United Press) — Two persons were killed and six severely injured when two automobiles crashed head-on three miles east of here just before dawn today.

TRAPPING SEASON DRAWS HUNTERS

Rush for Licenses Expected Before November 15

OPEN SEASON APPROACHES

Raccoons, Rabbits, Many Others Soon Ready

Trapping season, which officially opens November 1, after which date it will be legal to take raccoon, will increase the sale of licenses, in the opinion of John T. Cotner, county clerk.

Sale of licenses reached the 1,000 mark shortly after the opening of the season on squirrel September 15. Then it lagged down for a spell, and now shows a total of 1,460.

Open season on a number of other varieties of game will commence on November 15.

Rabbits may be hunted from that date up until January 1. A limit of 10 bunnies daily is proscribed, and there is to be no hunting between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise.

POXES, NOVEMBER 15

Trapping season commences November 15 and closes February 1.

Other fur bearing animals which may be legally taken after November 15 are skunk, mink, muskrat, and opossum. The season on muskrat and mink closes March 1.

Thousands of dollars are annually realized by trappers in Allen county from the sale of furs taken in hunting and trapping along the streams of this region.

Because of the big demand for furs, Cotner predicts a rush for licenses to trap as the season approaches.

It is understood the cost of the structure will be between $10,000 and $15,000.

STAFFER ARRAIGNMENT POSTPONED BY REQUEST

Arraignment of W. L. Staffer, 48, of North Baltimore, was postponed until later in the week, following request in criminal court by Staffer's attorneys.

Staffer was arrested Sunday night, following complaint of G. Rapp, 1063 W. Spring-st., on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. The complainant asserted that Staffer was conducting himself in a disorderly manner at the home of Mrs. Bertha Barton.

Staffer was released on $300 bond for appearance in court Tuesday, but did not appear in person, his attorney making an attempt to change the charge and refusing to plead when the request was refused.

MISSING WITNESS IS LOCATED

Will Testify in Murder Case at Cleveland

CLEVELAND — (Associated Press) — William H. Conklin, the state's "mink" witness in the murder trial of Mrs. Mabel Champion, 22, will arrive here tomorrow from Baltimore ready to testify in the fatal shooting of Thomas A. O'Connell, carnival promoter of New Haven, Conn., in a restaurant last July.

Conklin, cashier in the restaurant at the time of the killing, is said to have declared he saw Mrs. Champion fire three shots from a revolver she concealed under her coat following a quarrel between O'Connell and Mrs. Champion's husband.

County Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton, basing his principal hope of conviction upon the ex-cashier's testimony, ordered a city detective to Boston to locate Conklin who had only recently recovered from a surgical operation there and today received a wire from the detective that he would be here tomorrow morning with Conklin.

When the selection of a jury was resumed this morning three women and one man were tentatively seated in the jury box.

YANKEES PATROL VLADIVOSTOK

Marines Placed on Duty to Protect Americans

RUSSIANS, JAPS IN CLASH

Maintenance of Order Declared to be Difficult

(BY JOHN GRAUDENS)

MOSCOW — (United Press) — American and British marines patrolled Vladivostok today, to protect subjects of the United States, and Great Britain in a three cornered conflict among Russian "reds," Russian "whites" and Japanese.

The Russian soviet army is advancing toward Vladivostok on the heels of the Japanese troops who are evacuating.

M. Tchitcherine, foreign minister of Russia, has dispatched a note to Japan protesting against the delay in the admission of the troops of the Far Eastern Republic into the Vladivostok district.

Tchitcherine charged that Japanese troops are being officered by the Russian "whites" who are opposed to the soviet regime.

VIOLENCE CHARGED

The foreign minister, in his communication, charged that the Japanese, "with the connivance of the whites" are pillaging and committing acts of violence against the civil population. He stated magazines have been plundered and that the mechanism of Russian warships and merchantmen have been removed.

The whole district is endangered by explosions directed by Japanese officers, Tchitcherine alleged.

The maintenance of order, according to word received here, is very difficult, despite the guarantee the Far Eastern commander gave the American consul in which he promised to protect the lives of foreigners.

The note concludes by stating that Russia will not only hold Japan responsible for the conditions, but also that the allied governments who have not protested against the acts of violence.

COST OF MALADMINISTRATION

THIS newspaper does not intend that it be made a party back—the blind backer of partisan candidates for office simply because they are adherents of this or that political party. It demands that those whom it advocates must possess merit in a marked degree. This is the reason this journal deems it to be for the best interests of the electorate of Ohio to choose Vic Donahay for Governor and Atlee Pomerene for United States Senator.

Laudation of either of these men is unnecessary. Both have been tried in the crucible of time and service and have been found not wanting. However, there are cogent reasons why their opponents should not be chosen. The biggest of all these reasons is that they endorse the administration of Governor Harry L. Davis, admittedly one of the worst that was ever experienced in Ohio; so bad that the Republican leaders did not dare permit Davis to run again.

S. D. Fess as Congressman has been a blind partisan, lacking in the elements of statesmanship in a marked manner. Carni Thompson for Governor has promised to retain the Davis administration personnel. His election would be only the changing of the head of the "gang." Here is what Thompson endorses and is pledged to continue on the job the organization that brought it about: The state tax rate was increased from less than one-half a mill under Democratic administration to nearly five mills; the first year of the Davis reorganization rippled law cost Ohio taxpayers $18,000,000 more than they paid in any one year under the Governor Cox administration. These are only a few of things laid at the door of the administration which Thompson endorses and promises to keep intact, but they are sufficient to prove that a great mistake was made in 1920 by the election of Harry Davis as Governor. It would be even as great a mistake to elect Carni Thompson Governor this year in view of his pledges.

VOTERS SHOWING INTEREST

REGISTRATION of new voters last Friday and Saturday, the final days for performing this duty, exceeded all expectations. The board of elections had estimated that 200 or 300 probably would be added to the lists in the city. While the exact number is not definitely known, it is expected that nearly 1,000 will be added when the final tabulation is made.

This registration shows an interest on the part of the voters, a thing that has been sadly lacking. It is to be hoped that it is a forerunner of a voting boom in November when people cast their ballots after due consideration of the issues before them.

The beer and wine issue in Ohio is accredited with awakening interest and bringing out many who have not voted heretofore. If it does this and nothing more it will be worth while. Too many people forget that they are charged with the duty of choosing public servants and that unless they exercise their best judgment the state and nation suffer.

BUSY

IF you think you are overworked, consider the activities of Joseph Simon, a Syrian, 40 years old. In Chicago court he tells the judge that, in addition to being head of the Parist White religion, he is writing a new Bible of 2000 pages, inventing a new clock and a revised calendar, also working out a 13-letter alphabet and a simplified system of spelling and talking. Wonder what he does in his spare time.

GEISHA

THE notorious geisha girl system of Japan is destroyed by the Japanese courts. Hereafter it will be unlawful for parents to sell their daughters into geisha girl slavery against their will.

The immediate effect of this decision by the judges is to free possibly half a million Japanese girls from bondage. It baffles a system thousands of years old.

Democracy is ruling on the other side of the Pacific when Japan makes a contribution this important to the world-wide emancipation of women.

BRONCHIAL LUBRICATIONS

One of the most solidly established and generally accepted principles of treatment for any of the acute respiratory infections of which acute bronchitis is one, acute coryza another, is the relief of congestion. Congestion means too much blood in the affected region, and this is perhaps the chief feature of any such inflammation.

Various expedients are employed to relieve congestion. The most universally effective way to accomplish the purpose, I believe, is by means of the hot mustard foot bath administered to the patient in bed. To the uninitiated, I find, this always seems about as practicable as it would be to give a fellow a shave and hair cut while he plays a set of tennis. But that only goes to show what a blessing a trained nurse is to have around the house. A trained nurse can administer a hot mustard foot bath to a patient in bed without doing any damage to the grand piano in the parlor either. A nurse may be trained to administer a hot mustard foot bath properly without going away and giving two or three years of her time to a hospital. I have attempted more than once to tell her just how to give a hot mustard foot bath and I have a horrible suspicion that some good housewives have attempted to give one as directed by me. To such or any others interested I would suggest that the easiest way to learn how to do it is by watching a good nurse do it. I once tried to run a motor boat by directions on a card and I know something about the dangers of theoretical instructions.

The hot mustard foot bath achieves its object when the patient enters upon a profuse sweating, not because the sweating carries out any considerable amount of impurities which should be eliminated from the bronchial tubes, but because the sweating is good evidence that considerable blood has been withdrawn from the chest to the skin surface and the extremities.

Attempts to administer or take hot mustard foot baths sitting up are seldom successful, and there is a certain risk of fainting in the erect posture.

Persons who know neither the nature of bronchitis nor the mode of action or purpose of the hot mustard foot bath are generally confirmed believers in the "cold" bogey and consequently fearful of "taking more cold" after such profuse sweating. No intelligent person need have any anxiety about that; no ill effect will ensue even tho the patient throws off his blankets and takes the air in the very midst of the sweating or immediately afterward. He just fails to derive all the benefit a properly managed hot mustard foot bath will give. Nor should any one harbor anxiety about going out of doors soon after such sweating. Outdoors is the best possible place to go if you are fit to leave your bed at all.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
"In Told and Lead Poisoning"
Is there any possibility of contracting lead poisoning by eating food which comes wrapped in tin foil? For instance, some fancy kinds of cheese are so wrapped.—N. T. O.

Answer—Tin foil generally contains more lead than tin. There is a slight chance of lead poisoning if the food has been in contact with the foil.

It requires surprisingly minute quantities of lead, ingested over a prolonged period, to cause chronic lead poisoning. This is because the body suffers lead poisoning from the use of flake white and other cosmetics which contain lead, or from the use of hair dye or hair tonic containing lead. A child used three had a habit of standing on a chair looking out of the window and sucking or biting the paint off the window sash—enough to contract lead poisoning.

Working in a tobacco factory used to hold bits of foil in his mouth; he suffered paralysis from lead poisoning. Foil containing lead should not be used for wrapping edibles.

Why is it that there is a valid test for tuberculosis in cattle but none for tuberculosis in man?

Answer—The tuberculin tests (hypodermic injection, and von Pirquet skin test) are as valid in men as in cattle. Many adults harbor a focus of tuberculosis which is not active; they respond to tuberculin tests with positive reactions. It is only in a young child that a positive reaction to a tuberculin test strongly suggests tuberculosis as the cause of the illness. An adult who is ill of another disease yet responds to a tuberculin test. Cattle reacting positively to the tuberculin test are condemned as a source of milk, as a safety

THE CHAMPION

David Lloyd George is in trouble again. His enemies think they have got him at last. They've thought so before, on occasions—and then they've found him on top when the crisis was past. For David has vigor, he's quick on the trigger. He's there with the blarney, the skill and the brain; and freely I'll wager this clever old stager will win and of Britain be premier again.

David Lloyd George isn't ever asleep. He seems to be napping at times, but he's not. He always is ready and willing to leap in the thick of the battle where fighting is hot. He lets his toes blind him with both hands behind him.

And just when they chuckle at chortle with glee, And start celebrations and wild jubilation, He does a Houdini and gets aw free!

David Lloyd George has the pep at the punch, He's ever alert and he's always athrob. Among Europe's statesmen the he of the bunch. Whatever the problem he's rig on the job. He thrives upon crises; his vigils eye sees. The chance of successes in pe or in war, And when this fight's finished—win or undiminished David Lloyd George will THERE as of yore! (Copyright, 1922)

CONFERENCE CONTESTS DRAWING CAPACITY CROWDS

STADIUM STARTED

JINX RULES CHAMPIONS DURING PAST YEAR

BOWSHER AND GROSS WIN

CHICAGO—Football in the mid-west rapidly is assuming the proportions of a very successful industry and causing Western Conference officials to scratch their heads in perplexity over the problem of seating between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 persons this season in bleachers designed in the days when football was "just another piece of college football."

Between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 spectators will get the thrill of "Big Ten" games this season and conference officials believe that from one-third to one-half that many will be turned away because of the lack of accommodations.

Receipts from games in the conference this season will total in probability more than $1,500,000, officials said today. That much more will be expended in building more seats to increase the attendance.

At Ohio State University, where a new $1,400,000 stadium seating 65,000 persons was dedicated last Saturday, 72,000 persons jammed their way into the enclosure and thousands were turned away. Officials relate to the big Inter-Princeton here next Saturday was to break that all of the seats were sold nearly three weeks before the game and thousands of applications were returned to the unhappy Bangs Field has a seating capacity of only 31,000 even with the erection of temporary bleachers.

Extraordinary crowds have turned out at all of the conference games thus far this season. The Iowa-Illinois game at Urbana last Saturday drew capacity—22,000—while the Wisconsin-Indiana game at Madison drew another capacity crowd, 22,000.

George Hunt, director of athletics at the University of Illinois, who built Illinois' first bleachers, among 200,000 20 years ago, turned the last spadeful of earth for a new stadium seating 60,000 at Urbana last month. Hunt built the field into a stadium of steel but even with this added capacity Hawkeye officials expect difficulty in satisfying the demand for tickets.

This demand has entailed such a tremendous amount of clerical work at some universities that the institutions actually are advertising to keep people away from games.

WEBB-JORDAN SET FOR BOUT

KENTON, O., (Special)—Thirty rounds of boxing will be given in the six bouts to appear on the card of the American Legion Athletic Association here tonight. Sailor Webb, from the Toledo stable of trainers of Sam Jordan, will go ten rounds to a decision with Nemo Gene of Akron, in the main bout. Webb appeared here several months ago, scoring a easy victory over Sailor Grant, a Lima, O., middleweight.

Another one of Jordan's proteges, Sherry Burch, will go eight rounds with Johnny Gary, of Marion, in the semi-final bout. Gary has boxed here twice and landed knockouts to Al Dundee, of Mansfield, and Charley Fitzpatrick, of Kenton.

Kid Dunham, of Kenton, will go four rounds with Young Patton, of Marion, in the curtain raiser, while Kid Murphy, of Alger, featherweight champion of the 53rd Division will fight Art Audek, of Lima, in the preliminary.

(BY BILLY EVANS)

THE year 1922 will go down in the annals of sports as a jinx season for champions.

Although two months of the current year remains, champions in practically every line of sport have lost their titles.

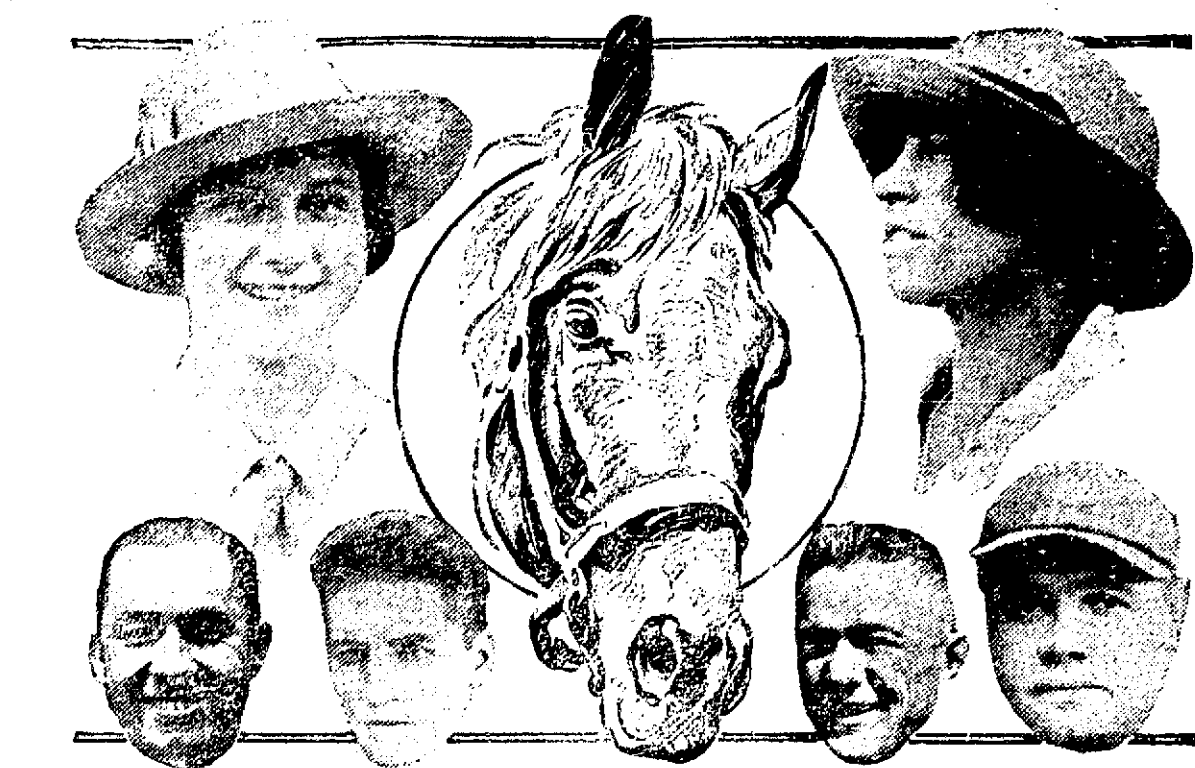

Perhaps the biggest upset in sporting circles was the absolute failure of that great race horse, Morvich.

As a two-year-old Morvich was unbeaten in 12 starts. He was placed in the same class with Man o' War. No one disputed his right to the two-year-old championship of the turf.

What would Morvich do as a three-year-old? It has been the history of the turf that many a great two-year-old fails to perform consistently as a three-year-old.

MORVICH DISAPPOINTMENT
Morvich won his first start, the Kentucky Derby, in impressive style. The Kentucky Derby is generally regarded as the classic of the running game. True, Morvich didn't face a strong field in the Derby, but he ran a great race.

The critics were ready to hail Morvich as the peer of all three-year-olds. Then something went wrong. In every other start during 1922 Morvich was badly beaten. Favored to win every race he started in, he failed miserably each time out. Inquestionably the absolute collapse of Morvich as a champion was by Mademoiselle Lenglen. In their previous meeting Mademoiselle Lenglen had defeated early in the match after being apparently outclassed. She gave as the reason, illness, but American tennis critics accused her of quitting cold.

COMES BACK
Another decided reversal form was the defeat of Mrs. Mallory, American woman tennis champion.

The result of the clash caused much ill-feeling in French and American tennis circles. Mrs. Mallory invaded Europe to prove that her victory was not a mere fluke as claimed by Mademoiselle Lenglen. The outcome was a decisive victor for Mademoiselle Lenglen, and a terribly jolt for Mrs. Mallory and American tennis.

Gene Sarazen, by his defeat of Walter Hagen, most be regarded as supreme in golfdom.

Hagen won the British open, Sarazen the America title. Recently the two met in a little golf world series and Sarazen emerged the victor.

While no actual title passed, still Hagen for the time being lost his right to be classed as the greatest money player in golfing circles.

Marion Hollins, who held the woman's golf title in America, was succeeded to the throne by Glenna Collett, the sensational Providence, R. I. player.

BUFF LOST TWO
In boxing circles the defeat of Georges Carpentier, world's light heavyweight titleholder, was a decided shock. The fact that Carpentier was beaten by a comparative unknown, Battling Siki, made the result all the more startling.

Johnny Buff, by the way, was the heaviest loser of titles. Buff held the flyweight and bantamweight titles at the start of the year. Joe Lynch is now the bantam champ and Pancho Villa the flyweight title holder.

In baseball the fall of Babe Ruth was a tragedy. Home-run king for three years, monarch of all he surveyed in swatdom, Ruth was jolted from his throne by Rogers Hornsby. All of which merely proves you can never tell what's going to happen in sportdom.

LOUISVILLE — (Special)—Jala Gross, Lima featherweight, was awarded newspaper decision Monday night over Dick Loadman after carrying the fight to the veteran Butalo battler all the way.

Loadman entered the ring confident that he would be able to demolish the Lima boy, but succeeded in winning but four out of the twelve rounds.

Gross was awarded the 1, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10 rounds.

COLUMBUS—Don Bowsler, Lima, middleweight, knocked out Sallor Webb, Detroit, in the fourth round of a scheduled 12-round bout. Webb was floored three times in the third and was out on his feet when his seconds shoved him in for the fourth.

Bowsler took a neat trimming in the first and second rounds and part of the third. With the third round almost gone, he asked the referee to stop the fight. When the fight started again, Bowsler uncocked a right to the jaw that floored Webb for eight seconds. Webb rose and was floored again for nine. He got up and went down again and was on the floor when the bell rang.

Webb's seconds pushed him to the center with the start of the fourth and Bowsler landed another right that put Webb out for five minutes.

CARP ISSUES SIKI DEFI

PARIS—Georges Carpentier has issued a formal challenge to Battling Siki for a return bout, the month's interim provided by the French boxing federation rules having elapsed since the Senegalese captured the heavyweight championship of Europe by his sensational knockout of Carpentier in the sixth round of their meeting here.

TILDEN IS FIRST

BILL TILDEN, by the great tennis that he has played this year, is entitled to first place in the ranking list. This is the third time that Tilden has won such high recognition in the tennis world. The runner-up position unquestionably belongs to William Johnston of San Francisco.

WILCE SHIFTS WORKMAN

COLUMBUS, — Hoco Workman, Ohio State quarterback, was relegated to the second team today by Coach Wilce and Quarterback Judy, a substitute, was placed on the varsity.

It is not known whether the change would be permanent. However, it was announced that the fumble in the second quarter which resulted in a Michigan touchdown, was the result of the signals being bungled by the Ohio backs. It was believed Workman may be held in reserve as a halfback, a position he played until his brother Noel at quarter was declared indelible.

The Bucks came out of the Michigan game in good condition. Elgin, the only player out of practice because of injuries, was expected to rejoin the squad today.

The team leaves Thursday for Minneapolis where it will meet the Minnesota Gophers.

MIDDLE TITLE AS STAKE

NEW YORK—Louis Boughas of Bridgeport, Conn., and Pat Reed, of Boston, will box 12 rounds tonight in the first of a series of elimination contests among eight contenders picked by the state athletic commission to battle for the world's middleweight championship in New York.

The title has been vacant since Dave Rosenberg of Brooklyn was suspended for failure to fulfill a contract to box Mike O'Dowd.

Other rivals for the middleweight crown in the Empire state, who are slated to figure in later contests, are O'Dowd and Jack Malone of St. Paul; Tommy Robson of Boston; Tommy Loughlin of Philadelphia; Angie Ratner of New York and Bryn Downey of Cleveland.

BENNY LEONARD TO FIGHT WHITE

NEW YORK—Benny Leonard will defend his title as lightweight boxing champion against Charley White of Chicago, or any other challengers, in December and January, Billy Gibson, his manager, declared today. December 22 has been set tentatively as the date for a match with White at Madison Square Garden.

REAL "GRID" STARS LIKE TO PLAY THE GAME

(BY AUBREY DEVINE)
All-American 1921, Captain Iowa 1921, "Big Ten" Champions

A GENUINE liking for football is a most necessary quality if a player hopes to be a star.

True, some football players reach stardom who are not crazy about the strenuous game. Unusual players would be natural a bit makes it possible. However, such for greater value to their team if they really liked the sport.

With the liking for the game goes the determination or will to do. Some will call it nerve, others will use the trifle vulgar yet very appropriate word, "guts."

MUST LIKE THE GAME
Success in college football rests upon the same broad foundation as does success in any other line of endeavor. If a man does not enjoy playing football for its own sake and is not possessed of the will power to perfect himself in the game to the very limit of his capacity to do so, he can no more expect to reap the rewards of a successful football career than he could expect to be successful in any other line of work in which he might engage in a half-hearted manner. In other words, he must be willing to pay the price.

Finally, to sum it all up in answer to the question, "Why high school stars do not make good in college," we may say that some never were stars, while other real stars lose their athletic ability before they get to college, either because they were "burned out" in high school by too much work, or because they are just naturally athletic in their teens and "old" men in their twenties.

What Bubbles Do

A new Shaving discovery

Here is one thing we learned about shaving cream in our scientific tests.

The bubbles must be strong, enduring—must not break. They support the hairs for cutting. Without them, hairs lie down.

That's a new discovery. Heretofore men never thought about that shaving cream requirement.

Four other needs

There are four other essentials, and we've met them all in Palmolive Shaving Cream.

It multiplies itself in rather 250 times.

It softens the beard in one minute. No waiting, no hot towels, no finger rubbing.

It maintains its creamy fullness for ten minutes on the face.

It acts as a soothing lotion, due to palm and olive oils.

Be fair to it

Now we ask you in all fairness to give this shaving cream a test. We have spent 60 years in soap study. One of our creations, Palmolive—is the leading toilet soap of the world.

We made up and tested 130 formulas to give you a shaving cream better than you know. Prove it out, in justice to yourself and us. Cut out the coupon now.

CAMERA MAN FINDS DRAMA UNDER OCEAN WAVES

(By ESTHER WAGNER)
MEN go on in their feeble way trying to straddle life on the screen, stage and printed page. These attempts are mostly unsatisfactory because the picture painted is artificial or too much like a reproduction of our own experiences.

And all the time there are going on in many odd corners of the universe natural dramas far more thrilling than any makeshift of man. Occasionally some cameraman sets a tripod where he can focus one of these natural dramas.

Such drama is offered in "Wonders of the Sea," J. E. Williamson's new picture on the floor of the ocean to get it. Myriads of fish striped and dotted fish swim before it.

There is the simple drama of the sea. Those not versed in the life of the sea think only of it as the awful shell from which maceos are cut or which can be used for a horn. Williamson shows it crawling on the bottom of the sea like a turtle, safe in its shell from enemies that swarm about it.

He also shows the savage barracuda, the deadly moray and the haunts of the octopus.

A swift undertow sweeps the plants that grow on the sea's floor. The picture is like that of a forest in a heavy storm.

Williamson and his aid go below in diving suits to kill the moray. The camera shows you the shark being caught with bait and hook. This scene disproves the theory that a shark must turn over before he strikes.

Miss Lulu McGrath, a shapely mermaid, dives time and again to pose among the fronds for an artist who sits in the windproof cell from which the cameraman operates.

And one of the most interesting shots shows this invention of Williamson which permits undersea photography. The late Alexander Graham Bell is shown going below to inspect the contrivance.

Famous French Drama to Appear Here

PIERRE BENOIT'S sensational novel "L'Atlantide," which was crowned by the French Academy, has been made into a powerful photodrama under the title of "Missing Husbands." It will open a four day engagement at the Sigma tomorrow. "Missing Husbands" has been the sensation of Europe since its initial publication in book form about two years ago. In producing the screen version of "L'Atlantide" no expense was spared in the selection of the cast or in the settings, the latter being as spectacular as they are elaborate.

The cast of exceptionally talented French cinema artists include: Stanislas Nierkowski, Marie-Louise Riba, Jean Angelo, George Melchior, Francischi and Abd-el-Kader Ben Ali.

DAY QUILTS U. S. SUPREME COURT

Justice Presents Resignation to President Harding

BECOMES EFFECTIVE NOV. 14

Republicans May Gain Senator by His Action

WASHINGTON, —(United Press)—Justice Day of the United States supreme court today presented his resignation to President Harding. The resignation is to become effective November 14.

The justice relinquished his high judicial office so that he may devote all his time to his new work as arbitrator of American and German claims growing out of the war.

As the result of the resignation President Harding has been given the opportunity to appoint three members of the high tribunal.

Already Mr. Harding has selected Chief Justice Taft to succeed the late Chief Justice White and Justice Sutherland to succeed Justice Clarke, who relinquished his place on the bench to work for the entrance of the United States into the league of nations.

Day has been supreme Justice since March 2, 1904, when he was appointed by President Roosevelt. He was the third ranking member of the court in length of service. He is a native of Ohio being born at Ravenna, April 17, 1849, the son of Judge Luther Day of the Ohio supreme court.

SHIELDS MAY SUCCEED

The resignation from the supreme court of Justice Day probably will give Tennessee a Republican United States senator.

In an effort to clinch the hold the G. O. P. got in that state in 1920, the Republican administration, felicitous, it is understood here, to appoint Senator Shields, a Democrat, as Justice Day's successor on the bench and to name Newell Sanders wealthy Republican plow maker, to Shields' senatorial seat.

Sanders is a candidate this year for the full six year term against Governor Allen M. Keller. Indications are that he has little show of defeating McKellar.

FAVORED CANDIDATE

His name has been favored candidate for the place since it became known that Day was resigning.

There is only one person Shields might not be named. He is over 60 years of age limit for senators but that one limit has never been a rigid barrier. It was waived in the case of Chief Justice Taft and others.

Attorney General Daugherty and President Harding both favor Shields' appointment and unless some obstacle more substantial than the senator's age appears, he probably will be named.

LIMA APPEALS TO HENRY FORD

Coal Supply at Waterworks Low Because of Freight

Inability of the railroads to handle coal shipments promptly has left the city waterworks with but 24 hours supply of coal, C. A. Bingham, city manager, said Tuesday.

A car containing 40 tons of coal is in the D. T. & L yards but one of the road state they are unable to provide a power to move it.

Coal is a vital necessity for the city waterworks. The city manager said that the coal supply is low because of freight.

An appeal has been made by Bingham to Henry Ford as he has several cars he dropped off from huge shipments which are sent turn the city to Detroit.

While it is not known whether the automobile manufacturer will be able to aid the city or not, it is believed arrangements will be made to have a car consigned to the city.

Lack of motive power rather than cars is said to be hold back shipments of goods and especially coal.

SHORT SHAVINGS

C. C. Post claims the longest Lima bean vine championship for his bean patch in Amanda, Ohio.

The vine is described as being as long as a clothes line, and was still growing when frost cut it out its career. The pods averaged three beans to a pod, and as counted by Post, the pods numbered 100.

J. C. Yant, magistrate, steps forward with due modesty to claim the championship in sweet pumpkin growing for Usavardam.

Ninety-five pounds the weight of this product of his pumpkin vine, which should not be confused with his ordinary cow pumpkin, which often attain a yet larger size and weight.

Yant reports that eight other pumpkins of good size grew on the same vine and he looks forward with considerable confidence to having his vine of pumpkin pie for Thanksgiving.

Frank Pringle undertook to sweep out the large chimney which carries off smoke from the open fireplace at his country cottage near Lakeview. He started at the top but instead of sweeping the chimney, he fell down its length, bouncing out thru the cloth with which he had screened the fireplace. A country neighbor suggested that the next time he cleans the chimney that he should tie a rope to his waist and post a friend on the roof to hold it. "It may be a good idea," said Pringle, "but there isn't going to be any next time."
